Biography

As Chief Legal Officer, Steven is responsible for all legal and compliance functions of the company and its affiliates worldwide. He advises senior management and others within Trimont on a wide range of corporate, regulatory, compliance, and servicing matters, represents Trimont in connection with balance sheet and securitization transactions, and oversees outside counsel.

Steven has spent the majority of his career in commercial real estate, as a consultant, asset manager and attorney. Before joining Trimont, he was in-house counsel and director of real estate for a private investor group and managed a multi-million square foot portfolio of commercial properties. Prior to that, Steven acted as outside counsel for commercial real estate clients in connection with property financings, leasing matters, and purchase and sale transactions.

About Trimont
