

TRIMONT NAMED A 2020 TOP WORKPLACE BY THE ATLANTA JOURNAL-CONSTITUTION

For the third year in a row, employees rate Trimont Real Estate Advisors as one of the top midsize companies in Atlanta

ATLANTA (2-March-2020) - For the third consecutive year, Trimont Real Estate Advisors has been named one of the 2020 Top Workplaces by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through an anonymous third-party survey administered by research partner Energage LLC, which measures several aspects of workplace culture, including alignment, execution and connection.

Trimont was listed as one of the top 63 companies to work for in the midsize category, and one of only five in the commercial real estate space for the third year in a row.

“We are incredibly honored to be awarded as a Top Workplace in Atlanta for the third year in a row. We continue to invest in our people and their professional development by providing our employees with the resources and benefits they need to achieve their maximum potential,” said Brian Ward, CEO of Trimont. “This is a testament to our team’s commitment and efforts to create a collaborative, globally integrated culture that drives employee engagement, and we are very proud of our employees for receiving this distinction.”

More than 3,000 companies were nominated or asked to participate in the 2020 Top Workplaces awards by The Atlanta-Journal Constitution. “For more than a decade, the Top Workplaces award has helped organizations stand out among their competitors to attract talent,” said Eric Rubino, CEO of Energage. “This differentiation is more important than ever in today’s tight labor market. Establishing a continuous conversation with employees so you have a deep understanding of your unique culture is proven to help achieve higher referral rates, lower employee turnover, and double the employee engagement levels. No longer is recognition simply a much-deserved cause for celebration, but it’s fast becoming mission-critical to establish a competitive advantage for recruitment and retention.”
