Biography

As Chief Revenue Officer, Mitchell is responsible for overseeing sales, client relationships, and growth strategies to increase the firm's overall revenue. Mitchell also manages new business development, marketing and communications, relationship management, and new product development.

He brings more than 30 years of experience to his role and serves on Trimont's Executive Management and Credit Committees. Mitchell is an active thought leader and speaker on panels at industry conferences and events.

Mitchell previously served as President and Global Chief Commercial Officer for Trimont, ensuring that clients continued to receive consistency in deliverables and best in class service across the Americas, European and Asian Pacific businesses.

He has also served as President of the Americas and led Trimont's non-performing/special servicing team along with various positions within the performing credit and asset management department. He was instrumental in building Trimont's nonperforming group in the early 2000's with an emphasis on construction resolutions. Prior to joining Trimont in 1999, he spent five years in the banking industry as a consumer and commercial lender.
